

Dear Ladies,

You are warmly welcomed to share a day of togetherness and a special opportunity to meet intimately with God, our Father, at this year's Glow-ladies away day.

Please pray for the event, which we hope will provide you with great spiritual nourishment. Please join us growing together in the beautiful Kent countryside with the Lord.

*yours faithfully,
Glow-away day team*

Michele Guinness

Michele Guinness was brought up in a practising Jewish family, then rocked the boat by becoming a Christian in her late teens, and later, when she married Peter, who became a vicar, (now retired). She worked in the media for many years, then moved into the NHS, eventually becoming Head of Communications for Cumbria and Lancashire.

Michele has also written thirteen books, many of them exploring the Jewishness of Jesus and the roots of the church, especially Chosen, her autobiography, and The Heavenly Party, resources for celebration, both newly reprinted. Her one novel, Archbishop, is a thriller about the first woman Archbishop of Canterbury.

She has two grown-up children and the five best grandchildren in the world!

The word "grace" slips off the tongue so easily - but do we really understand what it is? A chance to delve deeper into just how life-transforming this gift of God is meant to be.
